Hi! Gokukawa-hi! 草履鞋 on just plain "God"?

FIRE EMBLEM

On the Dark Dragon's awaking,
The God let the chosen one
take a sword called 'Falchion Sword'.
—— To save the world.

END of VOLUME 5

Disclaimer: This is NOT part of the original content. This is my own commentary.

Just in case you feel like asking: (I'll avoid the questions posed in the last volume.)

Who's my favorite character?

I think I'd have to say Julian. He's pretty funny...

More about me?

Sure. I guess so. My hobbies include Video (almost 12 years) Video gaming, Tae Kwon Do (Currently a high red belt) and Math (I hate English classes, though). I live in central Illinois (for obvious reasons I won't get into any more detail). I'm still single (for slightly less obvious reasons [because you can't see me], but you can probably guess that I'm a randy action guy). Though my freshman and sophomore years, there was this one girl... um, never mind. Let's see... I'm a senior in high school, um... ok! If you're over around St. Louis and you're a violin/viola/cello/bass player, visit St. Louis strings. That's where I go. How does it all work? (Translations)

Well, it helps to know the source language, even if it's just a little. I write the unknown character into a Java(TM)-applet and if it's a phrase, copy the recognized word into another website. I then edit the image with Microsoft Paint.

What kinda computer do I use?

HP Pavilion dv9000, 2GB RAM, Windows 7/Linux Mint

What do I do to help me translate?

Well, I do listen to music. I'm quite fond of Shredcore, Coldplay, Metal Gear Solid OST stuff, and classical music. And, yes, I do take a break every once in a while.

Got a favorite video game?

No, sorry, but it's not Fire Emblem. I like Metal Gear Solid. I do not, however like first person shooters (especially Halo). What would happen if we mix stealth action with RPG's? Heh.

Other info

1. I will open up a Paypal account on my 18th birthday. Please don't hate me for it. Yes, I'm asking for donations.
2. Volume I will be finished. Believe me! I know I said I wouldn't announce possibilities of future projects, but I have to leave a job half finished.
3. That is all.

--Cheers!
